OF CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS PRIOR TO 1845.

The first stone building, as stated in page 18, was commenced on the 5th of June, 1809, and began to be occupied on the 23rd of November following.

In 1808 a saw-mill was built; and the following winter the dam was carried away by the flood in the creek. In the summer of 1809 a new dam was built, and the mill repaired. In the fall of 1812 a new Saw mill was built in the same place, and the dam raised higher. On the 16th of August, 1834, it was burnt down in the night by an incendiary. A new one was commenced in the same place on the 25th of the following September, and on the 14th of the next March it commenced sawing.

May 5, 1810, the foundation of a stone meeting house began to be laid, 45 by 55 feet in size; and on the 14th of October, 1812, the same was finished and became the residence of the M inistry. This building stood in front of the three story stone house, on the west side of the street; and on the 22nd of May, 1839, it took fire, by accident, and was consumed. It had been used as a shop since the 14th of November, 1820, at which time the present frame meeting house began to be occupied.

January 7, 1812, the stone building 26 feet by 38, near the brick house at the West Family, was finished, and the Family which had been residing at Elisha Thomas's place near the creek, moved into it, under the care of Willis Ballance.

In the fall of 1812 the frame barn at the West Family was built, and situated where the water house containing the reservoir now stands, in the yard at the Centre Family; and in November, 1822, it was removed to the West where it now stands.

August 14, 1812, the three story stone house north of the first stone building, was begun; and the walls were erected in 1813; and a Family moved into it Dec.19, 1815.

In the fall of 183 a fulling mill was built adjoining the sawmill

And on the night of the 25th of July, 1818, it was carried away by the flood. It was ~~soo~~ soon after rebuilt under the Saw mill, where it remained till it was removed down on the creek below the West Lot, which was in the spring of 1823, the stone building having been erected there the previous summer for it and the carding machine.

In 1814 a carding machine was made, and was set in operation in June, down at the frame house on the Hord place. It was afterwards removed from there to the old horse mill; and in the spring of 1823 was removed thence into the stone building down on the creek with the fulling mill, where it remained till it was worn out.

In 1815 the brick shop, in the South West corner of the cross streets west of the meeting house, was built for a smith shop; and on the 18th of January, 1816, the smith moved into it.

January 1, 1816, the grist mill was begun, and the frame was raised on the ~~12~~ 8th of June following, and it commenced grinding Feb.9, 1817.

May 27, 1817, the foundation of the large three story brick house, called the East House, was laid, the dwelling house 45 feet by 55, the kitchen 28 by 56. And on the 18th of October, 1819, the family moved into it.

Nov.25, 1817, the frame house at the North or Gathering Order being finished, the young Believers began to occupy it.

March 3, 1819, we finished raising the frame barn at the East Family.

May 29, 1820, the present frame meeting house was raised, 44 feet by 60, and finished the next October 31st, and November 14th the Ministry moved into it.

Oct.26, 1820, the Ministry's shop was raised; and they moved into it the 9th of April following.

May 29, 1821, the foundation of the brick dwelling house at the West Family was laid. And November 26, 1822, the Family moved into it.

In the fall of 1823 the sisters' shop at the East House, a log & frame weatherboarded, east of the dwelling house, was finished; and it was occupied for an Office till the present Office was built.

Sept.10, 1823, the foundation of the brick shop at the tan yard ~~was~~ was laid; and the brick work was finished on the second of December following.

May 24, 1824, the foundation of the large stone building opposite the meeting house, the dwelling house of the Centre Family, was laid; and the walls were erected in 1825. It was covered and some other work done to it in 1826 & '27.

And in 1834 it was finished off, and the Family moved into it on the 24th of September of that year.

Nov.29, 1824, the foundation of the Centre garden house was laid and the brick work finished the 5th of March following.

In 1826 the stone dwelling at the West Lot was built; and it was moved into Nov.14, 1828.

Oct.6, 1827, the frame barn at the Centre Family was raised.

In 1829 the wash house at the Centre Family was built, being the frame of an old dwelling house that stood near the tanyard. Finished Nov.27, 1830. In 1843 an addition was put to it in the form of an ell being joined to the South side, and was completed on the 15th of December the same year.

In 1831 the brick dwelling at the North Family or Gathering Order was put up; and the Family moved into it Dec.29, 1832.

In September, 1831, we commenced our water works, digging out the spring and preparing it to receive the force pumps; in November following we raised a shed over it. June, 1832 the pumps were set in. November, 1832 finished laying down the iron pipes to convey the water to the top of the hill, and started the water up. April 20, 1833, the frame house containing the reservoir was raised; also we commenced laying down the lead pipe to convey the water from the reservoir to the Families; and the work went into full operation on the 30th of the same. And March 13, 1838, the water was conveyed to the North Family.

In March 1829, the Oil mill was completed down by the Grist mill. We had used one for many years before that was completed worked with a lever press.

In 1834 the brick shop at the West Lot was built, but not finished off ready for use till the next season.

April 5, 1837, the turnpike road through this Village was commenced; and completed on the 28th of September, 1839; being two miles and 132 poles from the bridge at Shawnee Run creek through the Village towards the river. The work was performed by hired hands, superintended by Micajah Burnett, the principal mechanic of Pleasant Hill.

June 6, 1837, the East Garden house was raised.

Apri 25, 1839, the foundation of the brick Office east of the meeting house was laid, and the brick work finished on the 19th of the following October, and moved into April 1, 1841.

LAW SUITS AND OTHER EVENTS .

The work of God has always been opposed by a wicked and sinful world, and his people have been the objects of persecution in all ages; by reason which the Believers in this day of Christ's second appearing have passed through much suffering, persecution and tribulation, of which the Society in this place have been made partakers according to their measure.

When the gospel was first opened in this land, (as is usual whereever it is extended,) it met with great opposition, and the spirit of enmity and malice manifested itself in various forms and manners, in afflicting and annoying the peace of the Society; and sometimes personal abuse was inflicted on individuals, by the unprincipled enemies of the cross.

In the latter part of the year 1811 they endeavored to stir up persons in power to oppress and afflict Believers, by the enactment of laws to deprive them of their rights and privileges as citizens. They made an attempt to procure the passage of a law to take all their children from them, and deprive them of the liberty of educating their own children. They were, however, foiled in this attempt by the justice and patriotism of the Legislature. But the spirit of enmity so far gained the ascendency in the Legislative hall as to accomplish the passage of an odious bill in 1812, which provides for divorcing an unbelieving wife from her husband, in case he embraced the faith, giving her possession of the children, if she choose it, and measurably of the property. And vice versa, in case the woman joins and the man does not.

In the late war with England which was declared the 18th of June, 1812, a number of the brethren were drafted to go into the army, and had to pay an equivalent to hire substitutes to go in their places, as provided for by the Constitution of Kentucky. But how many were drafted and how much was paid, is not now recollected.

About the close of the war the brethren determined not to pany any more muster fines nor attend muster neither, having hitherto paid their fines. Some of their property was then executed and sold by the sheriff to pay their fines. The Trustees brought suit against the Sheriff for the recovery of the property so executed. The Circuit Court decided in favor of the defendant. An appeal to the Supreme Court was taken, who reversed the decision of the Court below, and decided in favor of Believers not attending muster, nor paying fines; this decision was given May 25, 1815. And thus Believers in Kentucky have, ever since, been exempt from this annoyance. The report of this decision will be found in 4th Bibb, spring term, 1815, White and Voorhies vs. McBride.

An account of a suit brought by the Trustees against Robertson's heirs in 1816, to obtain a Deed for a portion of our lands, is entered in page 28th of this Book.

For about the space of ten years the Society was measurably exempt from litigation, except such as occasionally arose from business transactions with insolvents and defaulters.

About the year 1826 we began to be beset in various ways by the aggresions and infringements of seceders or apostates, some of whom set up claims as Covenant members, and attempted to keep possession and reside in the Families among Believers, or to go and come when they pleased; while they threw off all disguise and publicly renounced the faith, and disclaimed all allegiance to the Society, rejected its authority, and refused submission to the rules and regulations thereof. Others that left the place tresspassed upon our rights and premises in various ways. These things brought great trouble upon the Society and gave rise to much legal controversy between the parties. It also aroused the enemies of the cross, and excited their prejudices to take part and aid in the work of oppression and persecution. But finding that the Church was established on too firm a foundation, and the consecrated interest and property thereof too well secured by the existing laws of the land, for them to break through and get possession of it, and squander and appropriate it to their own vile purposes, they resolved to break down this barrier by seeking the aid of the civil authorities to accomplish their designs. For this purpose they addressed a petition to the Legislature, praying the enactment of such laws as would enable them to invade our peaceable possessions, and make spoil of the sacred and consecrated interest of the Church.

And though this measure was strenuously opposed by the advocates of justice and the rights of conscience; yet the spirit of prejudice and usurpation pervailed, and the act was passed, being approved Feb.11, 1828. It is true, however, that it was so modified by its opponents, while on its passage throught the Legislature, by the addition of the 4th Section, as partly to frustrate the designs against the Society.

Among the numerous suits that were instituted against the Society under this singular Statute, was one tried in the Circuit Court in Logan County, in which the honorable judge pronounced the act unconstitutional.

In January, 1831, the Believers addressed a memorial to the Legislature and attempted to procure a repeal of this obnoxious bill; but in this they failed, and it yet remains in force.

In the spring of 1829, (Several cases of minor importance having occurred,) Charles Ballance, a seceding member of this Society, executed a horse belonging to the Society, and sold him, to discharge a debt which he had contracted; and a man by the name of Herndon bought him. The Trustees forbid the sale, and brought suit for the recovery of the horse, it being an action of Detinue or trover to try the right of property, whether the trust property or consecrated interest of the Church was liable to execution for the debts of seceding members, or could be held and used ~~for~~ by them. The Court decided in favor of the Society and Covenant, that the property could not be used or executed by seceding members. This settled the question in relation to this case, and many others that were then pending. This suit was brought June 15, 1929, and dismissed at the July term 1832, in the Mercer Circuit Court.

Oct.19, 1829, a number of apostates, about eight in number, combined together and undertook to come and take possession of the premises; they entered the Office, asserting their right so to do, and their determination to make it their residence. But they soon became convinced that they had engaged in a hopeless cause; and on the 24th of the same, by the advice of their own counsel, and without any force being attempted on our part, they withdrew with shame, and abandoned their nefarious project.

About this time many of the apostates were rallying their forces, and doing their utmost to break up the Society; and as a final effort, several of them combined together and entered suit, to test the validity of the Covenant, claiming to be joint tenants or tenants in common, and praying a disolution of the compact and a division of the property. Several positions were taken by the plaintiffs; those who had contributed property prayed for a decree to the amount vested, including services; those who put nothing in, prayed for a writ of partition, on the ground of joint-tenancy, &C. This case was first entered on the 6th of April, 1829, by Charles Ballance in the Mercer Circuit Court, and afterwards removed to the Lincoln Circuit Court in Stanford; and James Gass, Samuel Banta, Francis Sassen and Matthew Burnett came in by cross bill and the suit was prosecuted in the name of Gass and Banta. The Court sustained the Covenant and dismissed the bill at plaintiff's cost in 1831. An appeal was taken by the plaintiffs to the Supreme Court. This Court also sustained the Covenant, and confirmed the decision already given, which put the matter to rest, at least for the time being. The decision of the Supreme Court was given May 5, 1834, and is reported in 2nd Dana, page 170, Gass & Banta against Wilhite and others.

It is worthy of remark, that there never has been a case in which the Covenant and principles of our association were involved, that was decided against us; but those principles have withstood all opposition thro' many severe trials, and still stand permanent and unshaken.

At the spring term of the Mercer Circuit Court in 1843, Robertson's & McMurtry's heirs brought suit for a portion of our lands; and withdrew it of their own accord at the fall term of 1844; an account of which is given in page 29, under the head of History of Land Claims.

OF CHANGES IN THE MINISTRY TO JUNE, 1841.

As stated, in page 34, the established Ministry of Pleasant Hill first consisted of a portion of the Missionaries that came from the East for that purpose--Viz. Father John Meacham, Elder Samuel Turner, Elder Cumstock Betts, Brother Constant Mosely, Mother Lucy Smith, Elderess Anna Cole and Elderess Hopewell Curtis. *

Aug.21, 1810, Brother Constant left Pleasant Hill for Union Village, and on the 13th of September following he set out from there, in company with Eliab Harlow & William Deming, for New Lebanon, and there abode.

April 13, 1818, Father John, after spending nine years of the prime of his life in faithful labors to plant and establish the gospel in Kentucky, left Pleasant Hill for New Lebanon to return no more. He was accompanied by Elder Cumstock & Elder Benjamin, who returned again to the West. Mother Lucy succeeded him as first in the Ministry. The title of Father was never after conferred on any at Pleasant Hill.

Oct.4, 1824, John R. Bryant, then in the 29th year of his age, was taken into the Ministry, being called Brother Rufus. After those who came from the East returned hom, the title of Elder was not continued to any except the two who stood first in the Ministry, Brother & Sister being applied to the two that stood second.

Nov.19, 1827, Mother Lucy set out from Pleasant Hill to return no more, leaving Elder Samuel first in care of the Society. She was accompanied to Union Village by Elder Brother Joel Shields, Thankful Thomas and Betsy Wilhite, where she tarried till June 9, 1829: then in company with Eleazar Wright, Elderess Rachel and Prudence Morrell set out for New Lebanon, there to finish her days. The title of Mother was never after conferred on any at Pleasant Hill. From this time Elderess Anna stood first in the Sisterhood while she remained.

May 9, 1835, Elderess Hopewell set out for New Lebanon to return no more, having filled a lot in the Ministry of Pleasant Hill since June 5, 1809. She went by way of Louisville, where she was joined by Elderess Mercy Pickett of South Union, and thence through Ohio where Elder Issachar Bates, then residing at Water Vliet, Ohio, joined the company, all of whom were returning home to New Lebanon, there to abide. They were accompanied by Elder Benjamin and Hervey L. Eades of South Union, who returned thither again.

Sept.29, 1835, Sarah Jenkins, being Elder Sister at the West, and in the 45th year of her age, was taken into the Ministry, to stand second with Elderess Anna. Sophia Voris took her place as Elder Sister at the West.

April 26, 1836, Elder Samuel Turner set out from Pleasant Hill for New Lebanon, his original home, to return no more, having filled a lot in the Ministry here since January, 1809, and been first in that Order since November, 1827. He was accompanied by John R. Bryant, who returned on the 24th of August following.

September 4, 1836, James Rankin having stood alone on the brethren's side in the Ministry since Elder Samuel's removal, was placed first and received the title of Elder James, and William Shields, Jun. was appointed to stand with him.

May 4, 1837, Will Shields was released from his membership in the Ministry.

Oct.2, 1839, David A. Ballance was appointed second in the Ministry, that place having been vacant since the removal of William Shields. D. A. Ballance was then in the 35th year of his age.

June 8, 1841, Elderess Anna Cole left Pleasant Hill for Water Vliet, N.Y., her original home, having been in the Western country about 34 years. She was accompanied by Elder Br. Edmond Bryant, Micajah Burnett & Sarah Jane McBride, the latter of whom remained there with her. The two brethren returned on the 18th of August following.

June 20, 1841, Sarah Jenkins, who stood with Elderess Anna as second in the Ministry, now took her place as first in the sisterhood and received the title of Elderess Sarah: And Sister Pauline Bryant, being the Family Deaconess in the First Order, and then in the 34th year of her age, was appointed second to stand with her.

OF THE ELDERSHIP.

The title of brethren and sisters implies a parentage. Elder Brethren and Elder Sisters is a title of distinction in Church family Order, applied to those who are first in care of a family. When a regular Ministry is constituted, it becomes necessary for each family to come under the immediate care of an Elder Brother and Elder Sister. When Believers first began to collect together, by several families, together with other single persons, uniting and forming one family, the principal founders of such families kept the general charge of things both spiritual and temporal for the time being. But when the Ministry was placed in their proper lot of general care, a brother and sister was appointed in each family to labor for the first gift of brotherly and sisterly care, there being but one of each sex generally at first, though there was generally another one of each that kept them company, and occasionally assisted in their business: those who had officiated were either continued or replaced by others as the nature of the case required. Such probationers were not distinguished by any title of seniority, until there was evidence that they had rendered themselves worthy of it, by their faithful obedience. But as the increase of order and travel required it, full lots of Elders began to be established in the families, and so it increased from one step to another till the Church was fully organized.

OF THE ELDERSHIP AT THE NORTH FAMILY BY THE TAN YARD.

In the fall of 1808 Joseph McCarver and Ruth Bruner were appointed Elders of the Family on the Hord place at Samuel Banta's South East of the village; it being a frame house in which they lived, it has been familiarly known by the name of the frame house Family.

In February, 1810, that Family moved from there into the other Families to give place for younger Believers to come there; and Joseph McCarver & Ruth Bruner moved to the tan yard to take charge of that Family which had been collecting there for a year or more, there being no regular Eldership previously appointed there. As that Family was directly North of the Village, it was called the North Family.

(Shortly after the above mentioned move the Runyons, Congletons, Bryants and others came to Pleasant Hill and were located at the Frame House; Joseph Runyon and Eunice Roberts were their Elders till in the fall of 1811, when Joseph went to the log house to teach school, and James Congleton took his place as Elder at the Frame House.

February 19, 1812, the Frame House Family dispersed into the other Families, to give place to other young Believers. James Congleton was released from the Eldership, and Eunice moved to the West to be second Elderess. The Frame House was occupied by young Believers that occasionally came in for a time, till at length the place was evacuated and the building moved away.)

Jan.7, 1813, the North Family moved up to the log house about 20 rods north of the three story stone house, then occupied by the school Family, the children having been collected there in January, 1811. Joseph McCarver & Ruth Bruner were now released from their Eldership, as their Family was attached to the Centre Family. The school Family at the same time moved to the North in their stead. There being but few adults at the school house or North Family, it was superintended by the Ministry and the Elders of the Centre Family; and there was no regular lot of Elders appointed there till most of the children got old enough to move out of the school order, and a Family of grown people was gradually collected there.

Nov.4, 1822, a lot of Elders was established at the North Family; William Shields, who was then second at the East, moved to the North to stand first and received the title of Elder Brother, and Marcy Runyon moved there from the East and received the title of Elder Sister. John Voris, Jun. and Anna Tyson, who had previously been the leaders in that Family, were appointed to stand with them.

July 9, 1823, Archibald Verbrike moved from the Centre to the North Family to be second Elder in place of John Voris, who was released and moved to the Centre Family.

September 13, 1825, William Badgett moved from the Centre to the North to take Archibald Verbrike's place as second Elder, and Archibald went to take first charge at the West Lot.

Nov.9, 1825, John Congleton moved from the Centre to the North and took William Badgett's place as second Elder, and William Badgett went to take charge of a Family of young Believers about a mile and a half north of the village, at the place owned by James Brickey.

Dec.20, 1825, Anna Tyson was released from the Eldership at the North and moved to the Centre Family, and on the 24th of the same Maria Saylor moved from thereto the North and took her place as second Elderess.

Feb.15, 1826, the North Family moved up onto the Hill and dispersed among the other Families, to make room for some young Believers. Elder Brother William and Elder Sister Marcy moved into the Elders' rooms at the East, and John Congleton and Maria moved to the Centre.

OF THE ELDERSHIP OF THE MILL FAMILY.

April 19, 1826, a Family was established at the Grist Mill, chiefly composed of the former North Family, the lot of Elders being the same, viz: Elder Br. William Shields and John Congleton, Elder Sister Marcy Runyon and Maria Saylor.

Sept.9, 1826, Archibald Verbrike moved from the East to the

Mill Family to be second Elder in place of John Congleton, who was released and moved to the East Family.

Mar.24, 1827, Archibald Verbrike was released and moved to the Centre Family, and Elder Brother William stood alone in that lot while the Family remained there.

Mar.27, 1828, the Mill Family was dissolved, and the Elders released. William Shields and a few others remained there to keep house and attend to the mill, and Marcy Runyon and Maria Saylor moved to the Centre Family.

OF THE ELDERSHIP OF THE NORTH EAST FAMILY OR GATHERING ORDER.

Jan.12, 1817, the Society was divided into two classes in their meetings; the Senior class or Order led by the Ministry, and the Junior Order led by John Dunlavy. About this time John Dunlavy, James Congleton, Betsy McCarver, Lydia Runyon and Jinny Congleton, were set apart to take charge of the young Believers that were coming in, to visit and counsel them and hear openings, &C; and to go out preaching as occasion required: They lived at the Centre, except James Congleton who lived at the East Family. In this time John was engaged writing the Manifest.

Nov.27, 1817, the above mentioned lot, except Lydia, moved to the North East, being duly appointed the Elders of the Junior or Gathering Order, the frame house at that place having been built for that purpose, and now ready to be occupied.

Jan.24, 1820, Willis Ballance, being first Elder at the East, removed to the North East and took first charge of the Gathering Order, and Joseph Runyon moved from the Center to stand with him. At the same time John Dunlavy & James Congleton returned to the Church, John to the Centre & James to the East. Sometime prior to this move Polly Hutton had moved from the East to the N.E. in the Elders' Order, after Jinny Congleton attended mostly to the temporal concerns, and shortly afterwards moved to the East, thence to the Centre the 8th of February, 1820.

Feb.8, 1820, Polly Harris moved from the East to the North East to take Polly Hutton's place as second Elder, who returned to the East.

July 4, 1821, Ruth Voris moved from the North to the North East Family into the Elders' order, and on the 9th of the same was placed first in the sisterhood in place of Betsy McCarver, who removed to the Centre; and Betsy Wilhite went from there to the North East to live with the Elders and act mostly as Deaconess.

Aug.11, 1821, Anna Reed moved from the Centre to the North East and took Betsy Wilhite's place, who returned to the Centre Family.

Nov.4, 1821, Anna Tyson moved from the North to the North East and took Polly Harris's place as second Elder, who moved to the East Family on the 11th of the same.

Dec.1, 1821, James Neely, being second Elder at the Centre, removed to the North East to take first Charge of the Gathering Order in place of Willis Ballance, who, two days afterwards, moved to the East Family; and James Congleton, Sen. moved from the East to the North East in the Elders' order, Joseph Runyon remaining there also, making three brethren in that lot, there being three sisters also, viz: Ruth Voris, Anna Tyson and Anna Reed.

Feb.12, 1822, James Neely being sick, returned to the Centre, & from thence Robert Barnett went, on the 18th of the same, to the North East to take his place as first Elder of the Gathering Order.

April 27, 1822, Jacob Monfort being second Elder at the East, removed to the North East to take first charge of the Gathering Order in place of Robert Barnett, who returned to the Centre Family.

May 5, 1822, James Congleton was released from the Eldership at the North East and returned to the East.

May 7, 1822, Betsy McCarver moved from the Centre to the North East to stand first in the sisterhood in place of Ruth Voris, who still remained there as second, and Anna Tyson returned from there to the Centre.

Nov.4, 1822, as stated in page 40 at this date, Jacob Monfort received the title of Elder Jacob, and Betsy McCarver that of Elderess Betsy, to be continued to their successors in office, they being the first Elders of the Gathering Order: (Page 55.) Joseph Runyon, Ruth Voris and Anna Reed resided with them at the time.

Dec.7, 1822, Anna Reed was released and removed to the East and Susannah Roberts went from thence to fill her place.

And about Christmas the same month Ruth Voris moved to the West lot to stand first in the sisterhood, leaving Elderess Betsy & Susannah in the Lot at the North East.

Aug.9, 1823, James Coony moved from the West to the North East Family to be second Elder in place of Joseph Runyon, who returned to the Céntre.

Nov.6, 1823, Frederic Badgett moved from the Centre to the North East Family to be second Elderess in place of Susannah Roberts, who returned to the East Family.

Jan.19, 1824, James Neely being second Elder at the Centre, moved to the North East to be second in place of James Cooney, who moved to the West Lot to stand second Elder there.

May 19, 1824, James Coony returned to the North East and took James Neely's place as second Elder, who was released and removed to the Centre Family.

PUBLIC DEACONS.

Jan.15, 1827, there was a material change made in the management of the temporal concerns of the Church. The public and Church Deaconship was disannulled, and the temporal business all reverted into the hands of the Family Deacons. The lands, stock and property were all divided into three separate interests between the three Families in the Church, reserving a portion for a small Family at the Grist Mill. Each Family managed its own temporal concerns and economy. Francis Voris and Edmond Bryant acted in the capacity of Trustees for all the Families, to do the trading and out business for them, and were to render an account to the Family Deacons respectively, for all that was put into their hands to trade upon. The office Deaconess, (Charlotte Runyon and Polly Hutton,) were released, their office being disannulled. The Family Deacons were Tyler at the Centre, Davis Dunlavy at the East and Lewis Wilhite at the West. The above arrangement was a very great departure from true Church order.

This state of things, however, did not * long continue. In the ensuing fall the Trustees assumed, by appointment, the control of the mechanical and other public business, and managed it for the Church jointly, being no longer responsible to the Family Deacons in their separate capacity, the seprate interest between the Families being gradually abrogated. Each Family continued to occupy and improve the estate, farm and premises that were in their possession respectively, superintended by the Family Deacons; but the proceeds and income for both food and raiment, as well as all other things, were equally divided between the Families, according to their numbers; the families and members pursuing each their various callings and occupations for the joint benefit and good of the whole. Abram Wilhite was appointed acting Trustee in place of Edmond Bryant, who was appointed Elder Brother in the Centre Family. Francis Voris continued to act as Trustee also. About a year after the above period an office Deaconess was again appointed to attend to the female department in the office. Patsy Thomas was the one appointed. And thus it continued in this order of things till the 24th of September, 1834.

Sept.24, 1834, the Centre Family moved into the new * stone house opposite the meeting house, and the East Family moved down to the three story stone house, formerly the Centre House; and both Families were incorporated into one living in two houses, under one Deaconship, the two Deacons acted jointly; William Verbrike was given in care of the farm and other public business, and lived in the second house, and William Runyon lived in the first house and acted as Family or chore Deacon, to attend to the domestic concerns of both houses. The West Family remained as it was before this move.

Oct.27, 1836, the East Family moved back from the stone house to the East House again. But the temporal economy remained unchanged, except that Philip Lineback was appointed Family Deacon at the East House, William Runyon continuing to fill that place at the Centre; and William Verbrike moved into the Centre house and continued to act as first Deacon, to manage the farm and public business for the two houses as formerly.

Nov.21, 1841, William Verbrike was appointed mechanical Deacon for the Church, still retaining his office of farm Deacon for both houses of the First Order.

OF THE DEACONSHIP AT THE MILL FAMILY.

April 16, 1826, a small Family was established at the Grist mill, chiefly composed of the former North Family and Philip Lineback was appointed their Deacon. And on the 6th of May following William Nerbrike moved from the East to the Mill & took Philip's place as Deacon, and Philip moved to the East. And on the 20th of July following William returned to the East, and the Elders attended to business after that without a Deacon.

When the Family was first established Anna Reed was appointed ~~Anna Reed was appointed~~ their Deaconess and ~~sank~~ kept the place till the 19th of January, 1828, when she moved to the Centre Family, leaving it in the hands of the Elder Sisters.

Mar.27, 1828, the Elder Sisters moved up into the Church, and the Family was disannulled, except a few to take care of the place and mill.

OF THE TRUSTEESHIP.

Mar.12, 1810, the different Families formed themselves into one general Community by executing a Covenant to that effect, and appointed James Gass and Abram Wilhite Trustees of the Society. But this was not a consecrated interest, neither were the Trustees invested with the legal title to the property and estate of the Society; but they were only appointed agents to tranact business for them. See page 19 for an account of this appointment.

In 1811 James Gass was released, John Bryant being appointed Trustee in his place. And in 1812 Francis Voris was added to the number.

June 2, 1814, the first Church Covenant was executed at Pleasant Hill, and John Bryant, Abram Wilhite & Francis Voris were appointed in that instrument the legal Trustees, and were invested with the legal title to all the property & estate of the Church. See page 23 for an account of this appointment.

Mar.24, 1823, John Bryant deceased, leaving Abram & Francis in the Trusteeship.

Aug.22, 1829, John Rufus Bryant was appointed Trustee in place of Francis Voris resigned. See Book B, page 27, for his appointment.

Oct.5, 1844, Thomas Shain was appointed Trustee in the room of Abram Wilhite resigned. See Book B. Page 211 for his appointment.

Though many others have acted in the capacity of Trustees to do business for the Society, at different times, yet none except those before mentioned have ever been ~~interested~~ invested with the legal title to the property & consecrated interest of the Church up to the present time, May 14, 1845.

Jan.15, 1827, the interest was divided between the different Families, and the temporal business all reverted into the hands of the Family Deaconesses, and Charlotte and Polly were released. See this date under the head of Public Deacons, page 63.

Oct.28, 1828, Patsy Thomas, being then second Elderess in the Centre Family, was appointed Office Deaconess and moved to the Office, the separate interest between the Families being now done away.

About the first of August, 1829, Charlotte Runyon was moved from the Eldership at the East House to the Office, being appointed Deaconess in place of Patsy Thomas; who shortly afterwards moved to the Centre Family.

Oct.27, 1836, Tiny Verbrike and Nancy Price were appointed Office Deaconesses in place of Charlotte, who moved to the Centre Family.

April 14, 1838, Nancy Price moved from the Office to the Centre,, & Matilda Bryant moved from there to the Office to fill her place as Second Deaconess.

CHURCH RECORD 1830.

We now commence with the regular Journal of events that has been kept since the execution of the Covenant of 1830; but shall not repeat those things which have been selected therefrom, and entered under their respective heads in the foregoing classification up to the present date, May 15, 1845.

About the beginning of the year 1830 the Society had become so annoyed and harassed by the intrusions and depredations of withdrawing members or apostates, and other enemies through their influence, as stated in page 31, that it was resolved in council by the Ministry and Elders to have a Revision of the Church Covenant drawn up, setting forth the united understanding of the Church relative to the true import and meaning thereof, and to confirm and perpetuate its obligations according to their understanding of it from the beginning. Accordingly an Instrument, so termed, was prepared, and approved by the Chh., and on the 20th of May, 1830, and after, the same was freely and voluntarily subscribed by the persons whose names are appended to said article; and shortly after was printed and published to the world. A copy of the Revision will be found in Book B. page 33.

Concerning the Covenant of June 10, 1830.

As it was understood by Believers from the beginning that their written compacts and agreements were to be amended and improved as they advanced in the travel of their souls, and circumstances and the increase of light and knowledge rendered it necessary; and as the Church had passed through many trying scenes and gained much valuable experience and understanding in things both spiritual and temppral since the adoption of the Covenant of 184; it was therefore considered important and necessary that we should renew our Covenant with God and with each other conformable to the degree of increase attained. Accordingly for several years past the different Societies had been in a labor to improve, in a legal point of view, the form of that important instrument. And having succeeded in this object at the centre of union, a copy of the same was transmitted to us accompanied with a circular Epistle, which arrived here by the hand of Richard McNemar on the 4th of April, 1830, which being examined and approved, and drafted in a manner to suit our local situation, was duly signed and executed on the 10th day of June following: A copy of which, with the Epistle will be found in Book B. page 41.

A Lot of Elders was retained in the Second House, though subordinate to those in the First, the title of Elder Brother and Elder Sister being disannulled in that House, and Brother and Sister adopted in its stead. For the changes in the Eldership and Deaconship see this date under the head of Elders and Deacons in those two Families. The East Brick House was then taken for an Office and Tavern.

*See Art.6, Sec.3 of the Covenant of 1830, in Book B.

Oct.27, 1836, the tavern being now disannulled, and the office removed into the frame house east of the brick house again, the Family returned from the second or three story stone house to the East House again, standing in nearly the same relation to the Centre Family as stated above in 1834, the two Families being now constituted the First Order of the Church, and the West Family the Second Order. Whereas, We the subscribers at Shawnee Run in the County of Mercer and State of Kentucky, being members of the Community of people commonly known by the name of Shakers; And whereas we profess to be of one faith, in the gospel which we believe to be the only way of salvation, we believe it to be our duty as far as in us lies to live peaceably with all men, and especially with one another, endeavoring to build up each other in the truth; and not to do any thing that tends to discord or disunion. And whereas we are desirous to live together in one family, for the upbuilding, protection and safety of each other, and for the right understanding of all and singular whom this may concern; We do therefore, according to our own faith, and of our own free wills, and voluntary choice, Covenant and Agree, to live together, on the plantation now owned and occupied by Elisha Thomas. And, we do further Covenant and agree, to use and improve our strength and abilities for the mutual support and comfort of each other without ever having any demand upon, or bringing any debt or blame against any of thoseof us that so covenant together, on account of any labor or service that has been or may be done by us.

And, it is hereby agreed that a true copy of this Covenant be kept in the said family and also a copy of each Inventory; and that the originals of both be deposited with Samuel Banta, to be received from him again on no occasion whatever, except by the special order in writing from someone or more of the Elders of the said Community. Society or Community Covenants,

Entered into by the different families of Believers at

on and after the 12th day of March,

Whereas we the subscribers of the County of Mercer and tate of Kentucky and of the community of people called Shakers, having ceived faith in the gospel which we believe to be the gospel of salation, have at different periods for three or four years past, come in closer and closer union in the spirit, and of course in a communion property, and for this purpose have from time to time gathered ourlves together into large families, in which situation many of us have ved for some time past- But our light and union still increasing, by (page 10) hich we now find there is still a greater inequality and separation in r temporal possessions, than is agreeable to the gospel or our own ith and feelings; we therefore have come to a mutual determination rectify such separation and inequality as far as circumstances and our present situation will admit, and furthermore, considering ourselves still under the benign ways of the sun of righteousness, and the just and impartial making influences of the everlasting gospel, we are determined to hold ourselves in readiness for any further increase which the gospel hereafter may make manifest, but for the present the following is a true copy of that inward and heart covenant we have entered in to (Viz)

We the subscribers of the County and State aforesaid, and known by name as above, being fully persuaded according to the scriptures of truth, that Christ has made his second and last appearance to make an end of sin, and to establish his everlasting Kingdom of righteousness and peace upon earth, and believing the promise of God made known to the prophets and saints, that he would gather together all things in Christ- is to be brought about and completed in this last and finishing dispensation of God to man, and is progressively effected by the influence and power of the gospel of Christ in his second appearance, of which gospel by the grace of God through faith and obedience we are made partakers and by which we are called to forsake all for Christ's sake and the gospel-

We therefore feel it to be our duty and inestimable privilege to obey the heavenly call- to take up our cross and follow Christ in the regeneration, to forsake the connection union and relation which is of the flesh, and vain pursuits of this world- (knowing that the fashion of this world must pass away according to the scriptures) And to devote ourselves and all that we have unto God. And accordingly being desirous to live the rest of our time in that manner in which we can contribute most to the glory of God, for the support and increase of the gospel, and for the mutual happiness and advantage of ourselves and each other. Therefore we according to our own faith and desire, and or our own free will and voluntary choice, do mutually covenant and agree to come into the following order in the possession and use of our temporal property manner of living &c. That is to live together as brethren and sisters of one great family or Joint Community, ever aiming at the general good and welfare of the whole body, both in things spiritual and temporal; though at the same time holding ourselves at liberty to live in as many families or separate houses erected at such places, and at such distances from each other, as may be found most for the convenience and advantage of the whole. Each of (page 11) said families to have the immediate care and management of their own domestic affairs and also to bear the charge and burden of endeavoring to procure their own sustenance by their own honest industry. And we do also covenant and agree that the use of all the property, that we or any of us were, or are possessed of, previous to, or at the time of our entering into this joint relation, shall be devoted and given up to the building of the community at large subscribing this Covenant and otherwise for the support and support of the gospel as need may require. And that all or as many of us as choose shall cause that all our property thus devoted, after being apprised by men of our own choosing be inventoried and that such inventories shall be kept and preserved either by our Trustees or otherwise as the proprietors of said inventories may choose.

And it is farther our mutual agreement that in case any one of the subscribers shall hereafter see cause to withdraw from the community, they shall be at full liberty so to do, and shall be entitled to all the property they brought in, as specified in their inventories, or property of the same kind and value, within four months after due notice is given of such removal to the leading part of the family, to which he she or they respectively belong- Such a length of time being given to enable the remaining part of the community to make out such property in value and kind as above. In the making out and restoring which property all the several families of the community shall hold themselves jointly obligated to bear each their equal propertion, according to their several abilities- not having an eye to the particular family from which such removal is made- And we do furthermore expressly and solemnly covenant and agree that besides the property specified in inventories as above, we nor any one of us, shall nor will ever bring debt damage or blame against said community, nor against any member or members thereof- But whatever is or may be gained by any labor or service, which has been or may be done by us or any one of us while thus connected with the community, more than is necessary for our own comfortable support shall and is hereby freely given and devoted to such pious and charitable purposes as the common interests of the gospel may require, such as the erecting public buildings for the joint use of the community, the bringing up and schooling children belonging to the same, the entertaining strangers, the relieving the distresses of the ppor of the world, such as the widow, the fatherless and such like- together with the necessary expenses of sending the gospel to a lost world&c. And furthermore for the sake of convenience we have mutually and of our own inconstrained choice and free act chosen and appointed two of our brethren. Viz. James Gass and Abraham Wilhite to officiate as trustees for and in behalf of said community.-and to them (page 12) officially considered, and to their successors in office, do we unitedly agree to commit the charge management and direction, of all such of our temporal affairs and dealing as jointly belong or relate to the community at large- That is it shall be the duty and business of said trustees to make and settle all lawful contracts belonging to the community jointly or between the community and those that are without; and that all such business shall be done in their names as trustees acting for and in behalf of the community; and to them is committed the keeping of all papers and writings of that nature, such as deeds, bonds and all titles of lands and other property, &c.

And it is furthermore the business of said Trustees to see that the land that is owned and possessed by the joint community, is justly and impartially divided and set off to the use of the several families or branches of the community- And also that which relates to all other advantages and means of procuring a livelihood so that all the families be placed on as equal a footing as possible,

And it is furthermore covenanted and agreed that no person shall ever be admitted into this joint community, or allowed to bring in their property and add it to the joint interest thereof in any way or manner to the defrauding or wronging their lawful creditors or claimants that are without the community;

But such as have truly confessed and forsaken all sin in their knowledge and have paid up all their just debts and righted all their wrongs with every person- have turned to God by righteousness in all things, and have persevered in that line of obedience to the gospel until they have found such a degree of travail in the path of self denial, bearing the cross of Christ against the world and the lusts there of as that they have become so far crucified to and divested of all selfish and partial affections that they are able to come together and live in union harmony and peace, to them the door of the community ever stands open- and they are at free liberty to enter in whenever it may become their own faith and desire to do so.

And provided any should upon his or her own desire become an outwardmember of the joint communith withoutbeing thus prepared and they should afterwards find that they are not able to gain it so as to improve such a privilege, to the glory of God and their own spiritual advantage then they shall be at liberty to separate themselves again and shall if they choose take with them all the property they brought in in the manner before stated.

And moreover it is our faith and understanding and which we agree ever to walk by- that every one and all who receive faith in the present testimony of the gospel and live in obedience to their faith, shall be always at free liberty to live in whatever manner they choose as to the possession and use of their temporal property, &c without any breach of union (on that account) between those wh come into the joint interest, and those who do not, And none shall be required to come into the joint interest contrary to their own faith and feelings, but every one shall feel themselves fully at liberty to live in their own separate or private families, as long as they choose to provide for the same according to their own discretion and to have the full care and disposal of all their temporal property as they may see fit; And yet so long as they bear a faithful cross against all the unclean works of the flesh and all sin in their knowledge, they shall be received and held in full union and fellowship, as our brethren and sisters in the gospel, every one according to the honesty and uprighteousness of their hearts and lives, and according to that measure of spiritual travel whereunto they have attained- At the same time we fully believe that those who come

THIS REGISTER contains only those members who have signed the Covenant, or have deceased among Believers before they arrived at that age and privilege, with the exception of a few Individuals who have resided in or belonged to the Church under peculiar circumstances.

THE EASTERN MESSENGERS OR MINISTRY who came to the West as laborers in the vineyard, are all noticed in this work, both those who resided in this Society and all the other Societies in the West.

It is considered unnecessary to have this Book certified.

FIRST--Because all the legal matter required by the Covenant is entered and certified in Book B., this one being got up in this form for the sake of convenience, so that the account of any individual may be found, without having to search for it in a large journal among a variety of other matter where there is no index to point to it.

SECOND--Becase the form of it is such that it could not be done with convenience, the matter not being entered in one place in regular succession, where an Auditor could follow it with a certificat and his signature; but being dispersed through the different pages at various periods as it occurs with the individuals to whom it relates.

A LIST OF COVENANT DEFAULTERS previous to this date, November, 1845, will be found inserted towards the end of the Book at page 469, but their names are in the Index with the rest. Those who may fail hereafter must be noticed where their names are already entered.

Minors and others who resid in the Chh., but depart before entering the Covenant relation, are not noticed in this work, but may be found noticed in the Family Journal.
